Case No. 2:15-CR-15

UNITED STATES' SUPPLEMENTARY FILING REGARDING ADDITIONAL INFORMATION RELATED TO DEFENDANT'S MOTION FOR RELEASE

The United States submits the following new information regarding Samuel Courtney's request for compassionate release:

After conferring again with the Bureau of Prisons (given Mr. Courtney's claim that he sent an email and received a response), the United States received the attached email correspondence between Mr. Courtney and the warden's office. See Ex. 1. As the email indicates, Mr. Courtney did submit a request for home confinement on April 7, 2020, and that request was denied two weeks later on April 21, 2020 because his "recidivism risk score" is "medium" and because of his "past history of violence." Ex. 1.

In light of this information, the government no longer disputes that Mr. Courtney has adequately exhausted his administrative rights, as required in 18 U.S.C. § 3582(c)(1)(A).

However, notwithstanding the email, the government continues to assert that Mr. Courtney is not a suitable candidate for release in light of the relevant § 3553(a) factors, particularly the risk he poses to the community. That position is reinforced by warden's determination that home confinement is not appropriate for Mr. Courtney; indeed, Mr. Courtney's "medium" recidivism score and his "past history of violence," militate against any release here.

Respectfully submitted,

THOMAS T. CULLEN
United States Attorney
